

Tennessee REALTORS® Board of Directors

Standing Rules

1. Prior to start of the meeting, all Tennessee REALTORS® directors will check in and be given a packet and electronic voting device. As soon as the President declares meeting adjourned, all directors will pass their electronic voting device to the end of the aisles and the Sergeant at Arms and Assistant Sergeant at Arms will take them up.
2. All motions shall be made at a microphone and a copy of the motion, in writing, will be given to the President. There are motion cards at the end of each table for your use.
3. Cell phones and pagers shall be silenced during all business meetings and education sessions.
4. All votes shall be taken by electronic voting device unless otherwise ordered by the Directors.
5. Debate on motions shall not exceed 2 minutes per director. No director may speak the second time until all who wish to speak have done so. No member may speak more than twice to the same motion.
6. The following rules will apply if there is more than one candidate running for the same office:
 - Each candidate will be allowed 2 minutes to address the Directors
 - The candidates will speak in the order in which they were nominated.
 - After the candidates have addressed the Directors, up to three Directors may speak in support of each contested candidate on an alternating basis.
